Goodwin doula and breastfeeding peer support

East Riding

The East Riding Infant Feeding Service is delivered by the integrated specialist public health nursing (ISPHNS) and children's centre services. The service is here to provide you with information and support on feeding and caring for your baby throughout pregnancy, birth and throughout your child's first formative years. The services provide one to one breastfeeding support via home visits, breastfeeding support groups and specialist support delivered by IBCLC's (Lactation Consultants).

Lactation Consultant Service

Some women and their babies may need more intensive or specialist breastfeeding support. If you are continuing to experience problems with breastfeeding for example weight loss, slow weight gain, or low milk supply your midwife or health visitor may refer you, or you can ask to be referred, to the appropriate lactation consultant service. This is a free service.
